Subject manuscript was reviewed as requested. While it is apparent that the manuscript contains information which the author learned during the course of his overseas assignments with the Agency, nothing of a classified nature was found during the review. The author also was somewhat critical of State Department personnel and practices in the context of the manner in which his fictitious characters conducted themselves during the course of the novel. In spite of the above, from the DDA point of view (with the exception of the Office of Security) there are no objections to publication. [redacted]
